It's not too late to register for the fifth annual National Safety Stand-Down to Prevent Falls in Construction week May 7-11, 2018.

Your participation in the Stand-Down can help decrease the number of fall-related deaths and injuries just by bringing more awareness to safety precautions and prevention measures that can be taken on job sites.

Have you or someone you know survived a fall because fall protection equipment was worn? If so, send us a short video testimonial that we can share with our members. Don't forget to capture photos and/or videos of your company's Stand-Down efforts and email to Jackie Brown at jackie@saiaonline.org.

HOUSING FRAUD ALERT:

Various telemarketing firms with names like Global Housing Services Corporation, National Travel Associates, Elite Expo, Travel Era, Expo Rooms, and others have contacted SAIA attendees to solicit hotel reservations for the SAIA Annual Convention & Exposition. These companies usually say that this is the last day to get discounted rates, block is about to be sold out, or some other scare tactic. NONE of these companies are affiliated with SAIA or The Palmer House Hilton, and they are not authorized to book rooms in the name of SAIA.

National Travel Associates have been contacting various members recently. What they are saying is not true. Please use the SAIA link above to book your rooms. If there is information on the hotel that SAIA needs to communicate with you it will be done through headquarters staff. There is great risk in booking hotel rooms through telephone marketers. Companies have been known to cancel reservations once they have the credit card information.

The only secure method of reserving rooms for SAIA at the negotiated rate is by booking through the SAIA/Palmer House Hilton. Any and all phone calls and correspondence received from anyone (other than SAIA) offering to make room reservations should be ignored and reported immediately to SAIA headquarters at 816.595.4860.
