

THE SCAFFOLDER

Your Weekly Access to SAIA News, Training, Events & More!

THERE'S STILL TIME TO GET REGISTERED FOR SAFE+SOUND WEEK

August 13-19 is Safe+Sound Week, and you've still got time to register for the annual event. The overarching Safe+Sound Campaign promotes safety and health programs as a way to proactively identify and manage workplace hazards before they cause illness, injury, or death.

The SAIA encourages you to get involved by hosting an event, implementing activities that focus on each of the three core elements, and communicating your participation via your social media channels.

SHOW YOUR COMMITMENT TO SAFETY

Go to the Safe+Sound Week website, where you'll find free tools, templates, logos, and many other resources that you can use to plan and promote your events and activities.

Have you checked your mailbox lately?

Membership and ATI renewal invoices for 2018-2019 were mailed out August 1.

Payment is due October 1.

GET 14

ANNOUNCEMENTS

OSHA has redesigned portions of its website, specifically the law and regulations, enforcement, and trenching and excavation pages. Following is a brief description of each.

Law and Regulations

Find information on standards and rule making along with interactive buttons that explain regulatory language, which may be unfamiliar to some users.

Enforcement

Find information on OSHA enforcement, including national and local emphasis programs, compliance directives, letters of interpretation, and enforcement data.

Trenching and Excavation

Find resources from OSHA and other organizations on trenching safety. Some of the resources include a poster, a public service announcement, and hard hat stickers.

Let us know how we're doing: what's working, what's not. Have a suggestion or idea? Tell us about it. What information do you want to see in this e-newsletter? All feedback, good or bad, is welcomed and appreciated. Contact Denice Posey, Marketing Manager, at denice@saiaonline.org.
