

THE SCAFFOLDER

Your Weekly Access to SAIA News, Training, Events & More!

The SAIA is excited to announce the launch of its new website, which is still www.saiaonline.org (you might need to refresh the page if you have it bookmarked). Take a look at some of the improvements we've made:

- increased functionality of site overall
- real-time ability (for members) to update their information
- an integrated database
- reconfigured site navigation and content organization
- ease in finding the information you need
- updated branding to maintain consistency across all mediums

We'd like for all SAIA members to log in to the Members Only Portal and verify that the following are correct and/or update them as needed:

SAFE + SOUND CAMPAIGN PARTNER

Safe + Sound Week 2018 was a huge success, with more than 2,000 events taking place across the U.S. and abroad.

Even though it's over for this year, you can still get recognition for your activities. Download your participant certificate here (sample shown below).

Do you want to prevent injuries and illnesses in the workplace? The Safe + Sound Campaign offers a number of resources to help you

- find and fix hazards in the workplace
- improve your accident investigations
- develop strategies for injury

- contact information
- company description
- directory category

To sign in (top right side of page next to the SAIA logo):

1. enter your username and password
2. your 'My Profile' page opens up and is where you can enter/update the information listed above
3. when finished, scroll all the way to the bottom and click 'Save Changes'

For questions, comments, or help with logging in, please contact Brandi Fox at 816.595.4833 or brandi@saiaonline.org.

- prevention
- collect and analyze your incident data
